Forever and ever, we'll love you,
St. Vincent's, with a love that's true
When we're away we'll remember the days
We lived and loved and learned through you.
The light in your chapel will call us;
We'll see it shining from afar;
Keep it ever burning brightly
It will always be our guiding star.

Life — so they say is but a game

and they let it slip away

Love — like the Autumn sun should be dying

but it's only just begun

Like the twilight in the road up ahead

They don't see just where we're goin'

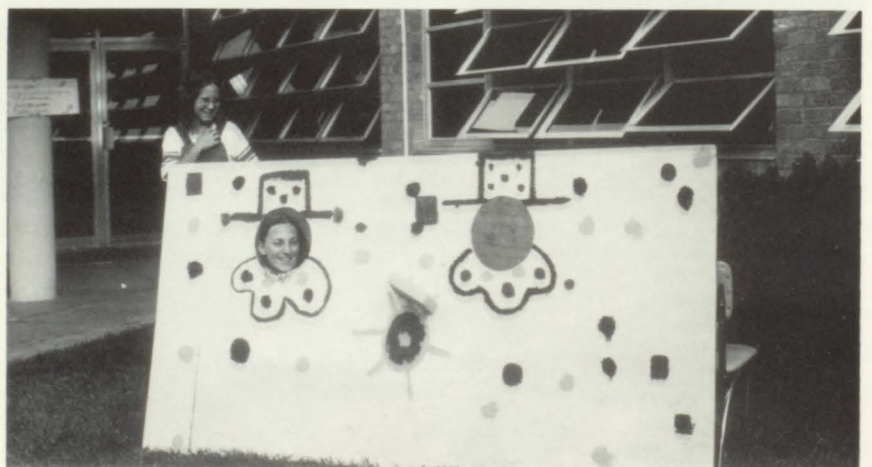

And all the secrets in the universe whisper in our ears

And all the years will come and go and take us up always up

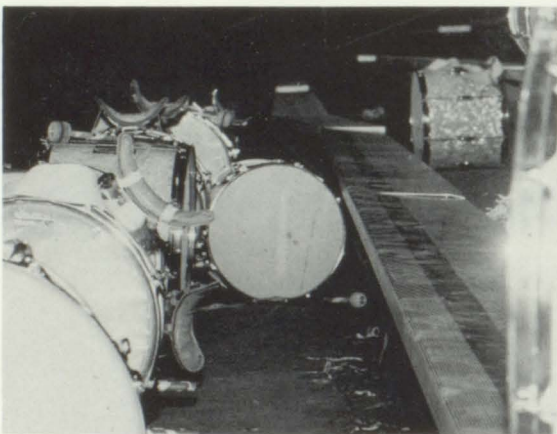

Dreams — so they say are for the fools

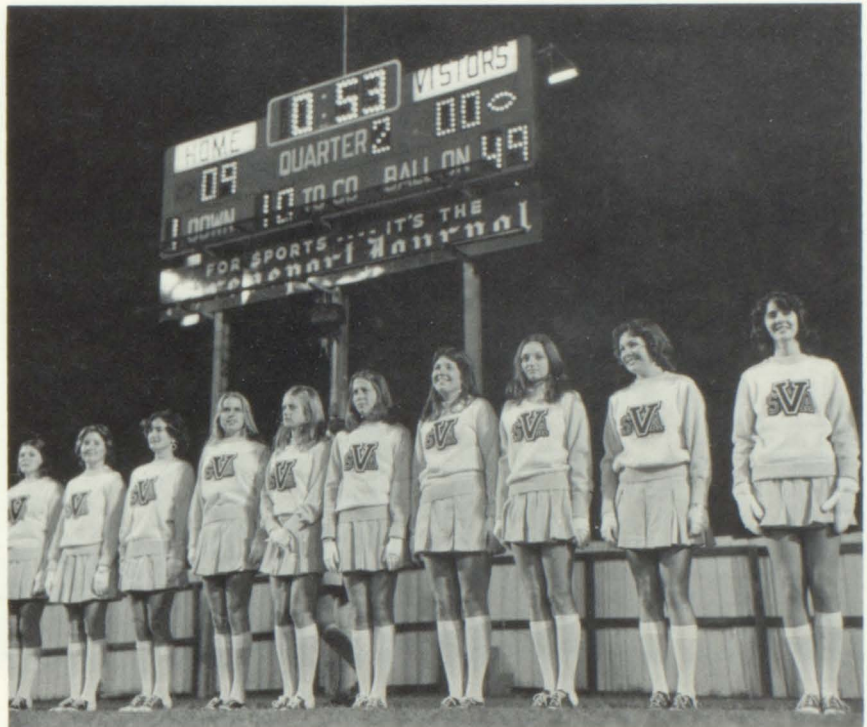

and they let them drift away

Peace — like the silent dove should be flyin'

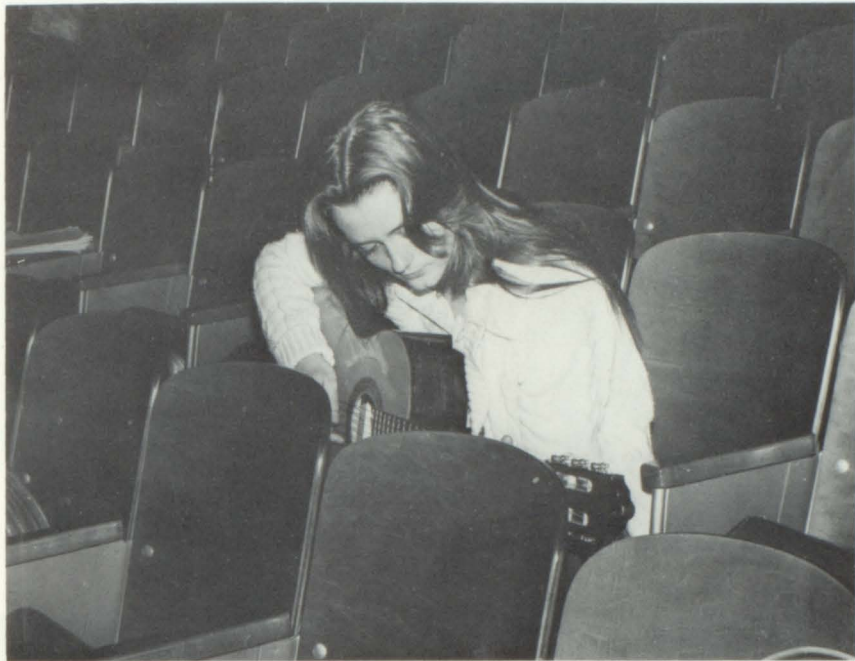

but it's only just begun

Like Columbus in the olden days

We must gather all our courage

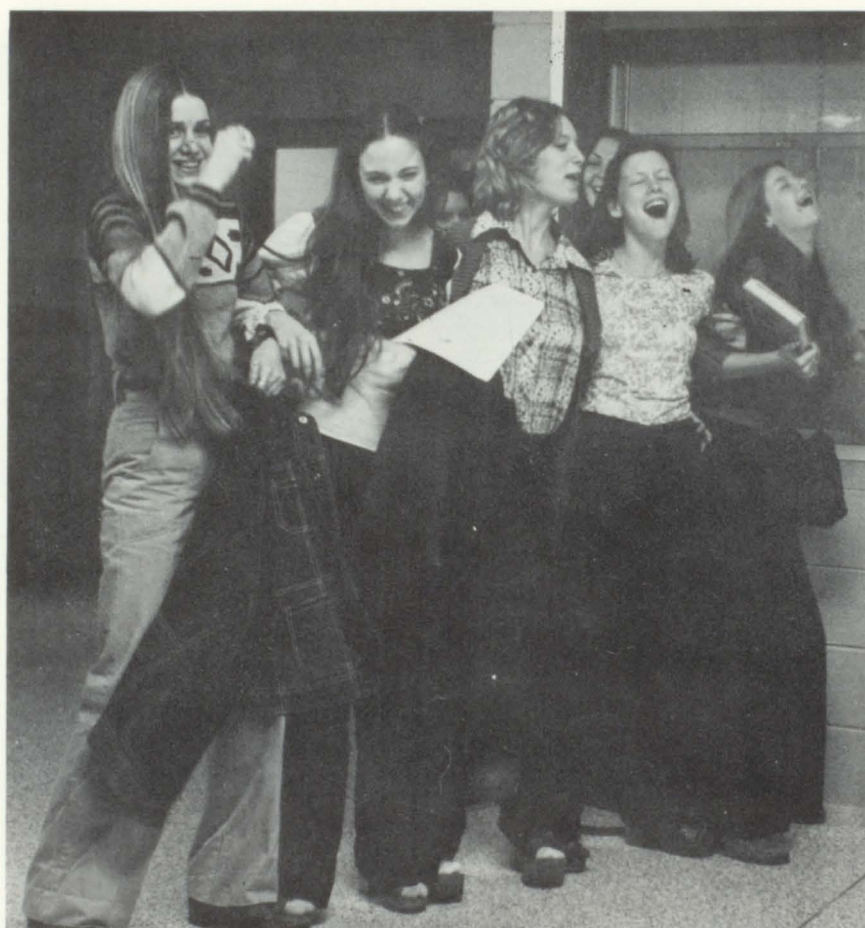

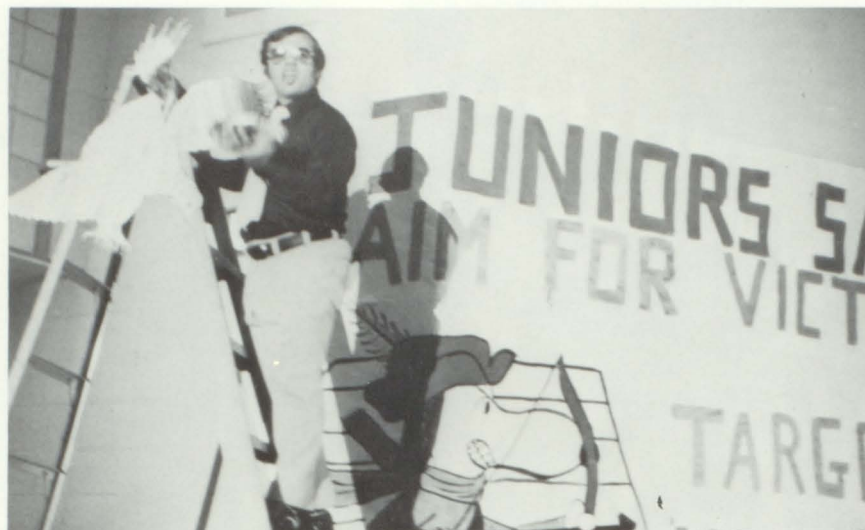

Set our sails out on the open sea, cast away our fears

And all the years will come and go and take us up, always up.

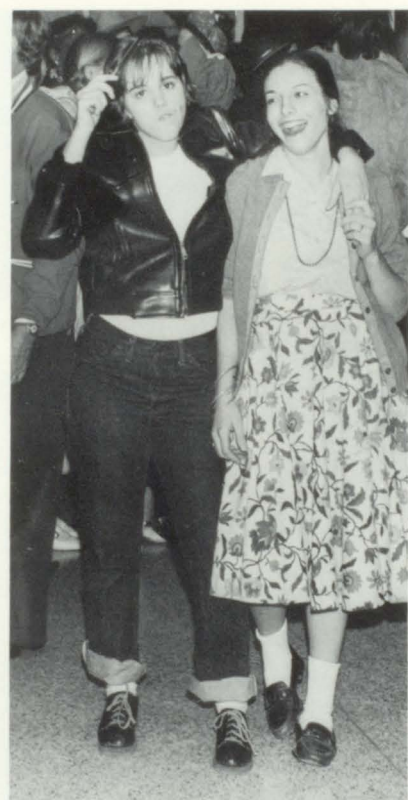

I want to laugh while the laughing is easy

I want to cry if it makes it worthwhile

'Cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend

Like I'm the journey and you're the journey's end

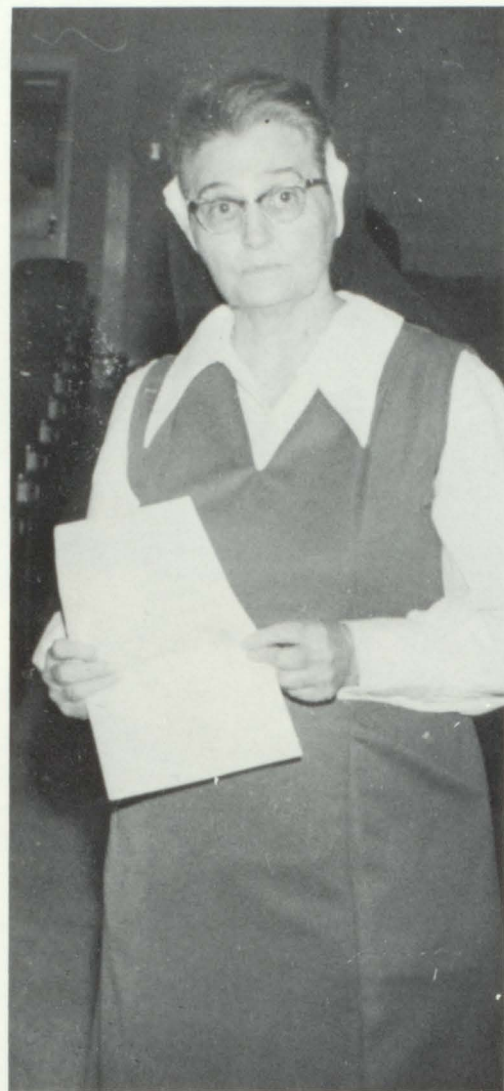

We may never pass this way again

We may never pass this way again

"Trust Your Car With the Man Who Wears the Star"

Monroe, La.

WILDCAT EQUIPMENT COMPANY, INC.

To the 1975 graduating class of St. Vincent's Academy,

We, your parents, have made an effort, however meager it may have seemed at times, to attend to your needs and desires, real and imagined, in that time now past, the springtime of your lives. Times have so vastly changed from what we knew at your age, that our efforts at guidance lacked, in so many cases, an understanding that we were totally incapable of giving. The attempt was made to give you what we considered proper guidance, for this effort was tempered with some thirty-five to forty odd years experience backing it up. You see, it is a simple fact that most of us have passed our summertime and are into the fall of our lives, whereas you are about to embark upon this time of your lives that shall prove to be so very critical to your future mental and physical happiness. Many of us will feel total success and be exhilarated at the fine job "we" did; many others will feel the effort put forth was adequate; yes, there will even be a few that falsely feel total failure, but it is YOU and no one else that these feelings depend upon. Your desire, or lack thereof, has dictated these feelings we have, for you see, we wished for you something we either weren't capable of or had the opportunity to be and we were just trying to guide you toward these ends. Your understanding of these efforts will fulfill our fondest desires at this moment.

As you go forth into this, the summer of your lives, I feel the leads listed here will give you a better opportunity for true happiness and serenity each day, than some of us experience just once in a lifetime. With the exception of the first, they are not necessarily in order of importance.

First, love God with all the fervor you can muster, for He returns this love in innumerable and most intangible ways each day.

Secondly, make a conscious effort to manifest a love of all mankind. I have never seen a person saddened by thinking a good thought or doing a kind deed.

Each of us has been allotted a certain time in this transient state we call life, and time can become either friend or foe, dependent upon our use of it. Each second is a portion of our journey towards eternity and we should not struggle to hoard this time, but give of it generously and use it ever so wisely.

Next, the friendships you make in life depend primarily upon you. Zealously guard and cherish true friendship, for you will never experience a love like that of a true and loyal friend.

One of the most important leads is to accept that each age has its own particular joys, mysteries, and yes, even sorrows. Never stop growing and learning to enjoy this advancement that unfolds each day. There are some that hate to grow old, but this part of the advancement, too, has its own traits peculiar to any other age.

And last but certainly not least, never forget that we, your parents, with all our "faults and mistakes," love you with all our hearts and souls — yes, more than even life itself.

Shalom

The 1975 Vincentian Staff would like to extend its sincere thanks to Jim Seals and Dash Crofts for allowing us to reprint the lyrics to their song "We May Never Pass This Way Again." We would also like to thank Keith Crane and the Jesuit Flight Staff for all their help.

"Glory Be To God"

In this Vincentian we have attempted to capture and preserve a small part of this brief and fleeting time in our life — a time filled with friends, dreams, ambitions and love of life itself, for WE MAY NEVER PASS
THIS WAY AGAIN.
